Tip of the Month – Viewing Charts in ACE

Have you created charts in ACE yet? Prior to version 7.3, you could only see graphical representation of your estimate by using POST. ACE charts can be accessed directly from the workscreen or from within the Inputs/Results Viewer

(IRV). Select Reports > View Charts or click the Charts toolbar button (). From within the IRV, ACE selects an initial chart to display based on the information showing. The following charts can be used to analyze your ACE session:

- Phased Stacks: Used to view the time-phased cost spread. It is the default chart when viewing results Phased by Case
- Column: Used to compare what-if case totals. This is the default chart when viewing Cases by Total. You must select which what-if cases to view from the Calculation tab.
- Histogram: Used to view uncertainty distribution shape. This is the default chart when viewing BY Risk Statistics.

ACEIT 7.3a – New Application Added

Joint Analysis of Cost and Schedule (JACS) is an add-in for Microsoft Project designed to quickly create probabilistic results for schedule and costs in an integrated schedule. JACS enables the cost-loading of schedule tasks and risk events, allowing the analyst to assign probability distributions and create a holistic view of the resultant risk analysis.

JACS combines ACE’s powerful RiSK calculation engine with graphical reporting, enabling an analyst to view the data and results from many different perspectives. As a Project add-in, JACS resides on a platform familiar to users, allowing them to spend more time generating analysis results rather than learning to use the software. The output is a fully integrated cost and schedule model that decision makers and analysts can use to gain prescient insight into their program.

2012 ACEIT User Workshop – Call for Papers

From Ordinary to Extraordinary: Leveraging the Full Spectrum of ACEIT
6th ACEIT User Workshop
 17-19 September 2012
 Crowne Plaza Tysons Corner
 McLean, VA

We would like to invite you to submit ACEIT related papers and/or presentations to be considered for this year’s User Workshop. The most compelling presentations are those that demonstrate innovative ways to solve common, but challenging estimating problems by exploiting features unique to ACEIT.

Please note that the Workshop fee is waived for presenters. For complete details, visit the Call for Papers section on the Workshop website.

Dates to Remember

Call for Papers Deadline – 15 May 2012 (extended)
 Early Bird Registration Ends – 31 July 2012

For complete details, visit the 2012 ACEIT User Workshop website.
